Marten expansion boost for area

Leader-Telegram Staff

Editor's note: Our Saturday editorial summarizes positive stories printed in the Leader-Telegram during the last week. It is worthwhile to use one day of the week to highlight good things happening in the Chippewa Valley, to applaud successes and good deeds...

Marten Transport is important to the economy of the Chippewa Valley, especially Mondovi, where the company is based. So it was good news this week when the company announced it was adding 162 jobs over the next three years in a $1 million expansion.

"We had run out of space — we couldn't do business without additional space," said Bob Smith, the company's chief operating officer.
